

Ms. Mina Hsing was born in Shanghai and studied classical brush painting at an early age. In 1963 she came to the USA after a short stay in Brazil and attended art school at the University of California at Irvine. She then moved to Evanston and finished her college education at Munderlein which is now part of Loyola University.

After marrying and having my first child in Evanston, her family moved to Poughkeepsie, NY and eventually settled in Raleigh, NC where she took her art skills commercial owning and managing three (3) art galleries studios in Raleigh/Durham, NC. As a gallery manager, she represented classical painters world renown.

Ms. Hsing moved to Illinois in 2000 and has been participating in various high-end Chicagoland Art Festivals sponsored by Amy Amdor and Special Events. During this time her works have sold at the Goldcoast River North, Lake Geneva, The Glen, Lake View, Wells Street, Lill Street, Evanston, Lombard Art Shows as well as several commission assignments such as Abbott Labs etc. She maintains a studio in her home in downtown Evanston and an outside studio nearby and provides private lessons at both locations in addition to teaching children at the Xilin NU Chinese School for the last two years.

She has more than thirty (30) years of art teaching experience for both adults and children in Evanston, Duke University Adult Education, Lake Forest, Gurnee, Waukegan, Milwaukee etc. Her works of art can be found on her website at www.minastudios.com.